

Palette & Chisel Studio Rules

By participating in our programs, you agree to abide by the following rules.

These rules apply to both classes and open studios.

For classes, all students receive the rules upon registration.

Arrival:

Please arrive on time.

Upon arrival, ring the front doorbell and wait for the instructor/monitor to let you in.

During the Session:

Keep personal phone business outside of class.

Do not take photos of the model unless the teacher/monitor explicitly announces that the model has consented to photos. (For Open Studios only: If photos are taken, tipping the model at least $5 via cash or digital payment platforms is mandatory. Some models may have a higher rate, which would be disclosed by the monitor.)

Absolutely no touching or interacting with the model during a pose. If the pose needs to be adjusted, tell the instructor/monitor. Violators will be removed from the session.

Please refrain from unsolicited comments about other artists' work or a model's appearance. Comments directed to the model should be confined to pleasantries only.

Music selection will be determined by the monitor, who may assign a participant to handle.

For multi-day Open Studio poses, you may keep your easel position for subsequent sessions only if you arrive on time to claim it.

After the Session:

Clean up your space. Ensure that your easel, bench and surrounding floor space are free of paint, pencil shavings, etc.

Please vacate the classroom in a timely manner as the instructor/monitor must tidy the studio space.

The building must be vacated by the 11:00PM curfew unless you have explicit approval from the Executive Director to stay past curfew.
